Would you rather have to wear a flower crown every day in spring or hop like a bunny everywhere you go?

Would you rather only be able to eat chocolate eggs for a week or drink nothing but lemonade?

Would you rather always have a butterfly following you or a tiny rain cloud that sprinkles water on you every hour?

Would you rather have to sing
like a bird every time you speak
or sneeze pollen every time
you laugh?

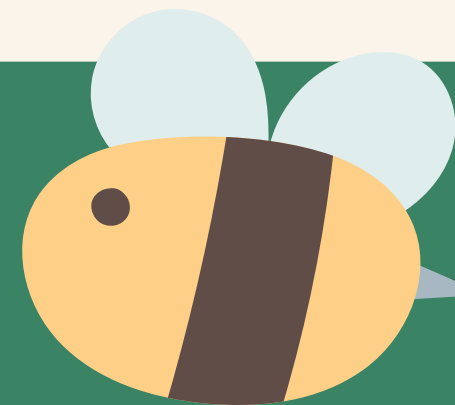

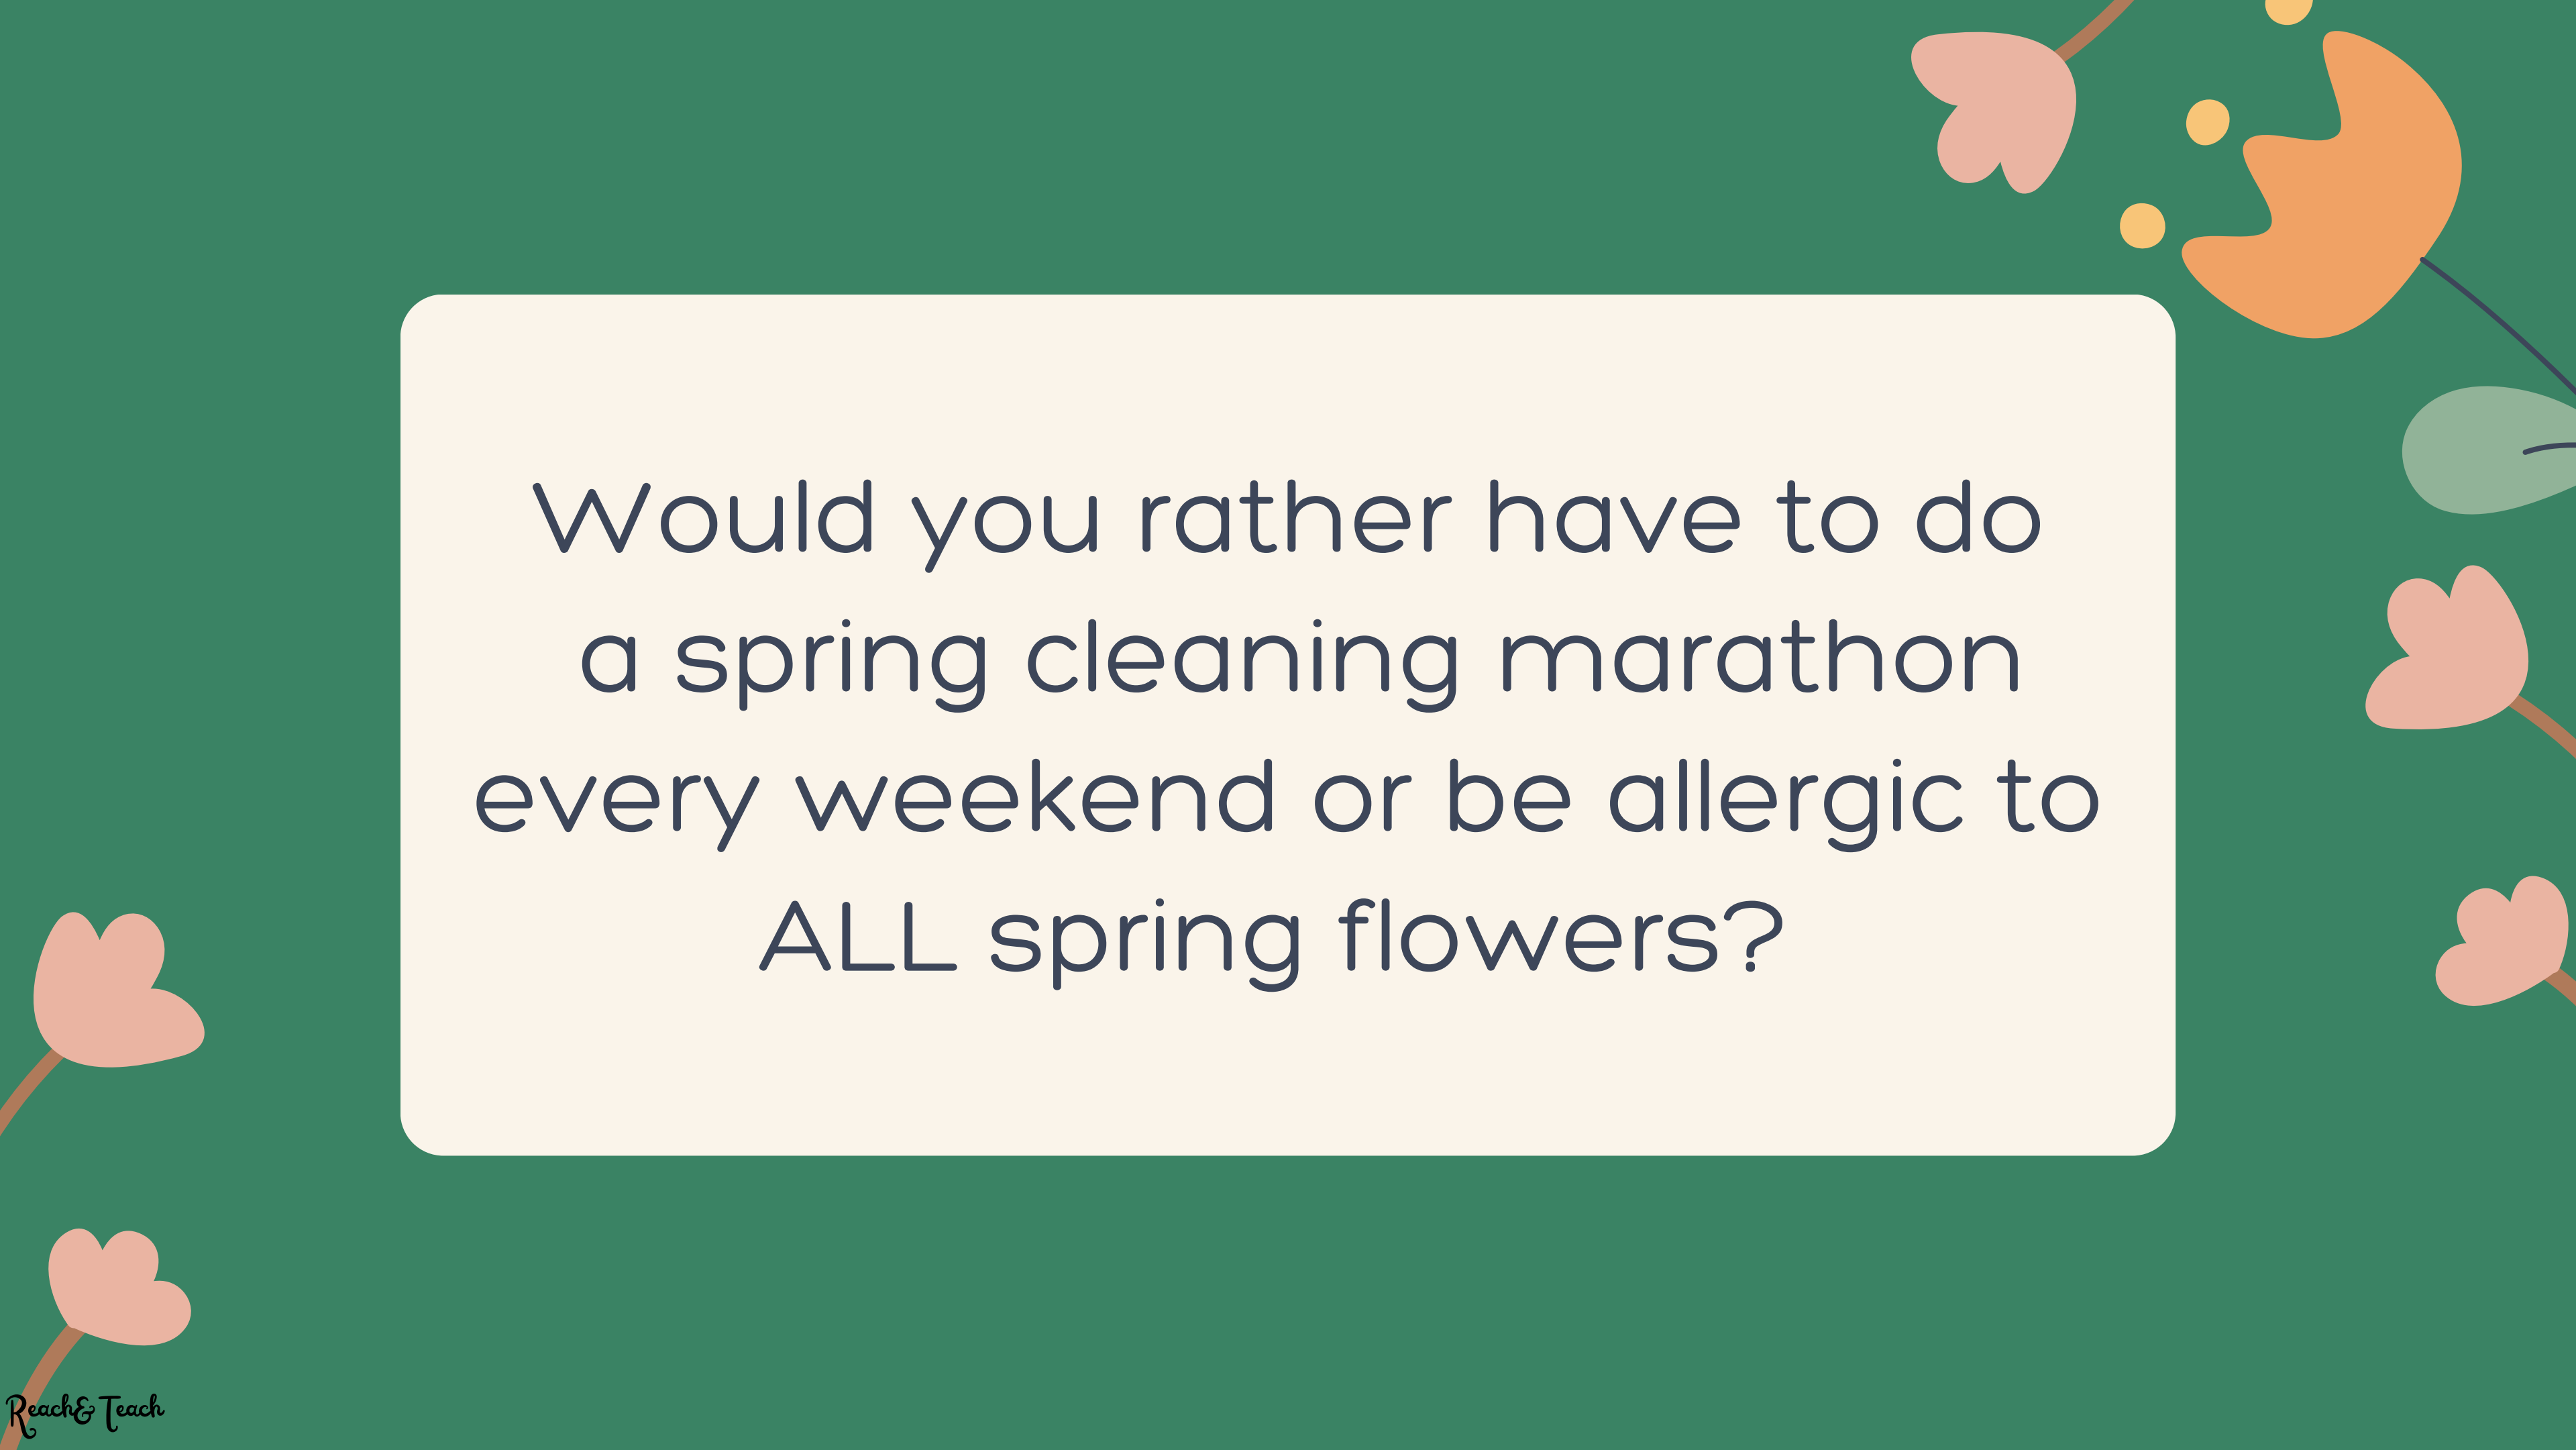

Would you rather wake up every morning covered in flower petals or have grass growing on your shoes?

Would you rather have bees whispering positive affirmations in your ear or a squirrel that gives you life
advice?

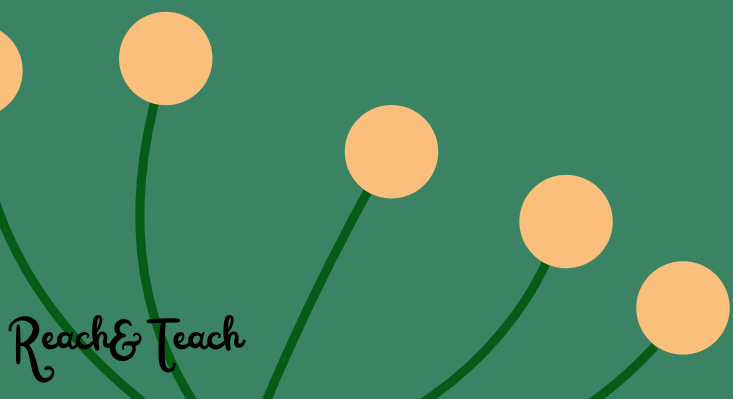

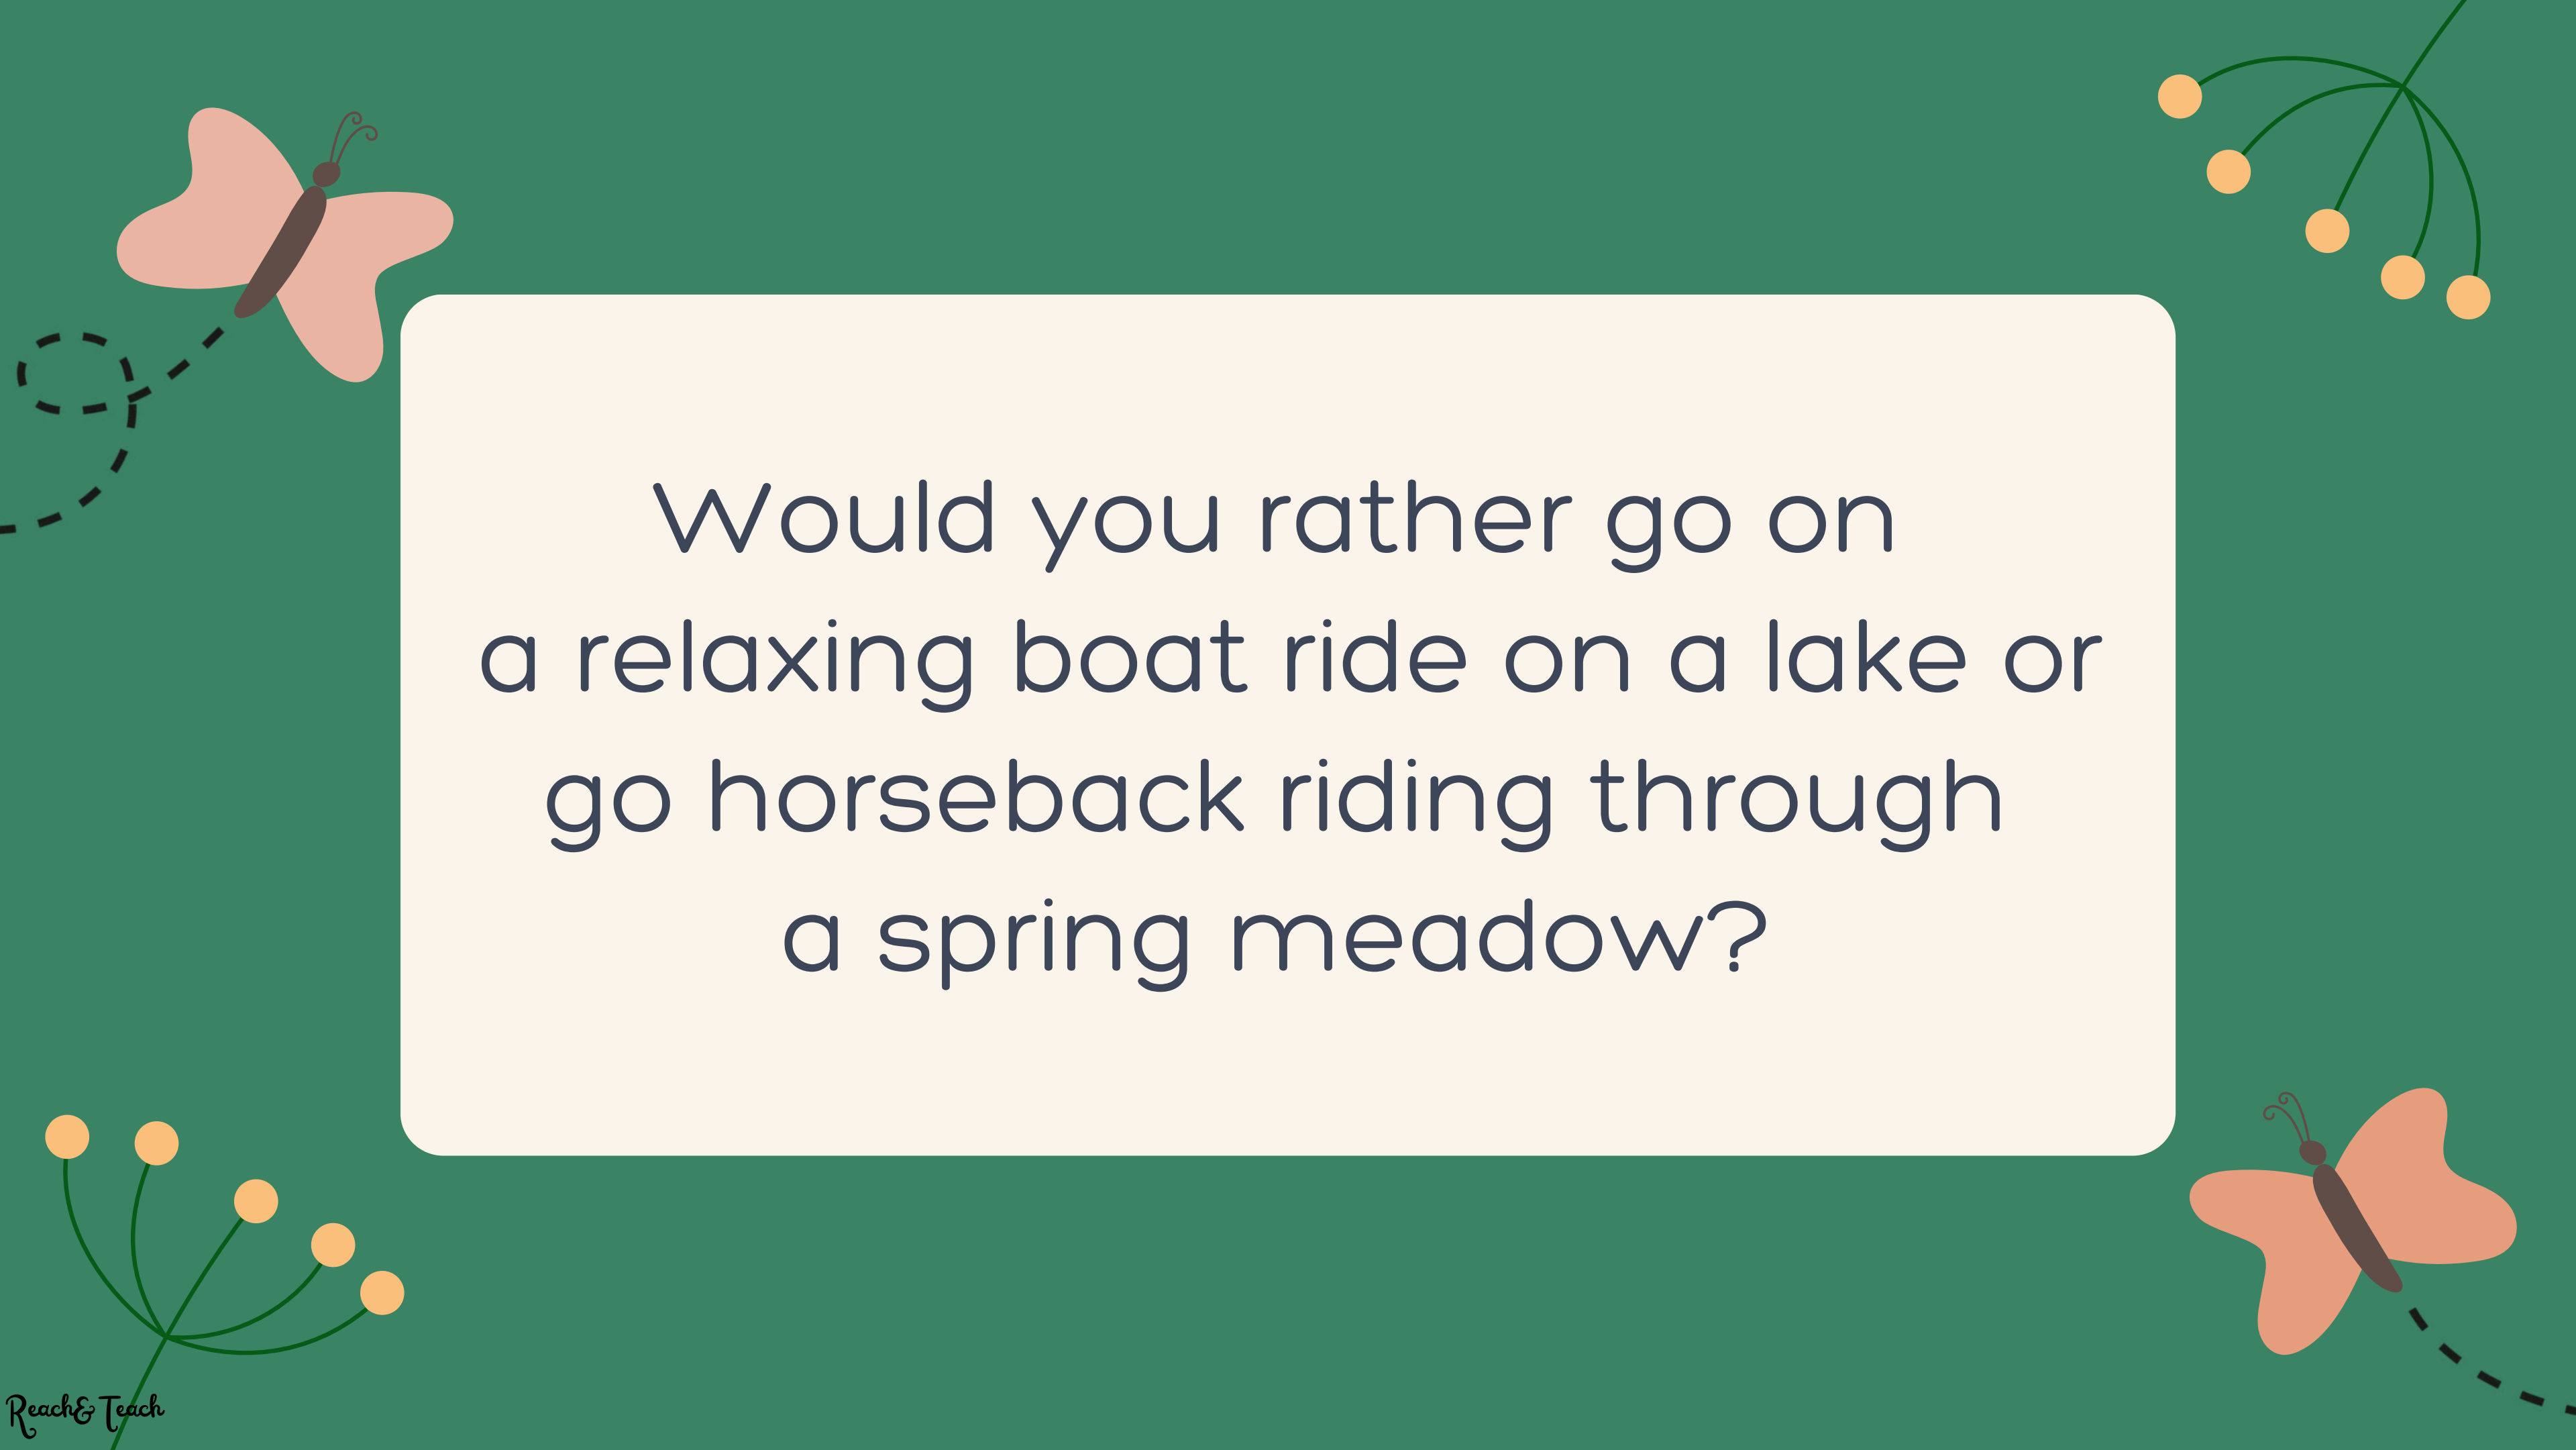

Would you rather have to do
a spring cleaning marathon
every weekend or be allergic to ALL spring flowers?

Would you rather only wear pastel colors for the rest of your life or have your hair permanently styled like a bird's nest?

Would you rather go on a relaxing boat ride on a lake or go horseback riding through a spring meadow?

Would you rather have a picnic where ants steal all your food or go on a hike where birds keep dropping things on your head?

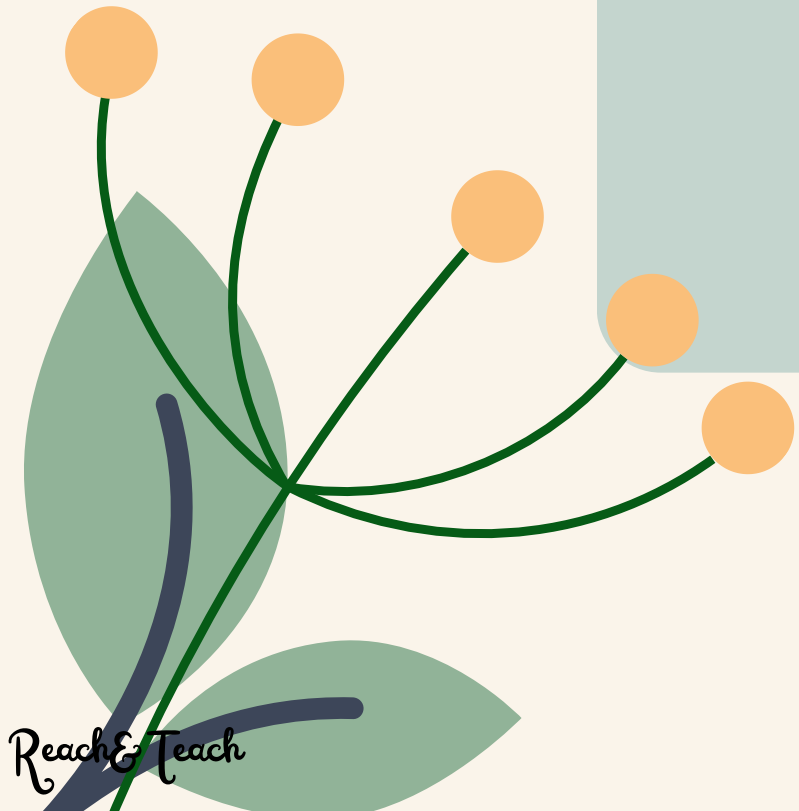

* Would you rather wake up every day to the sound of a rooster crowing loudly or have a frog croak every time you open your mouth?

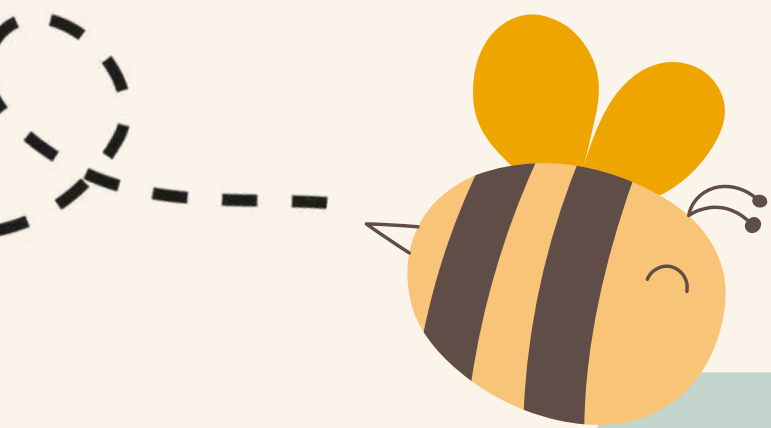

Would you rather only be able to eat fresh spring vegetables for a month or only eat fruit-based desserts?

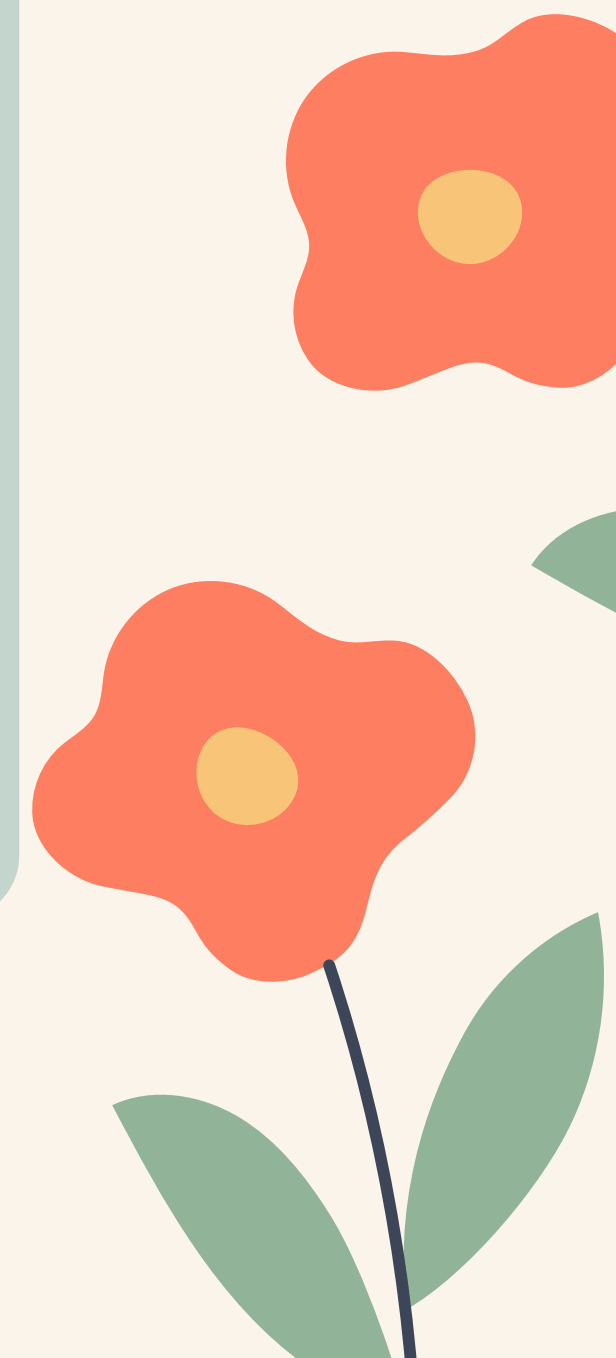

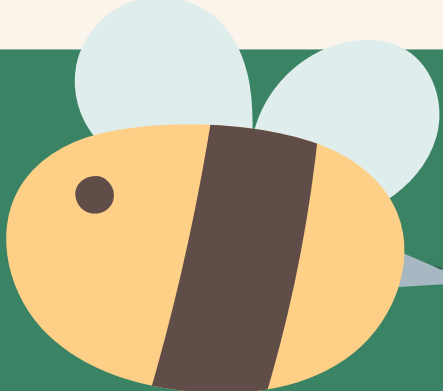

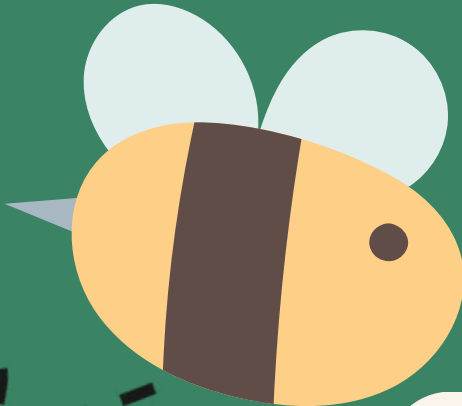

Would you rather take a road trip to see fields of tulips or visit a cherry blossom festival?

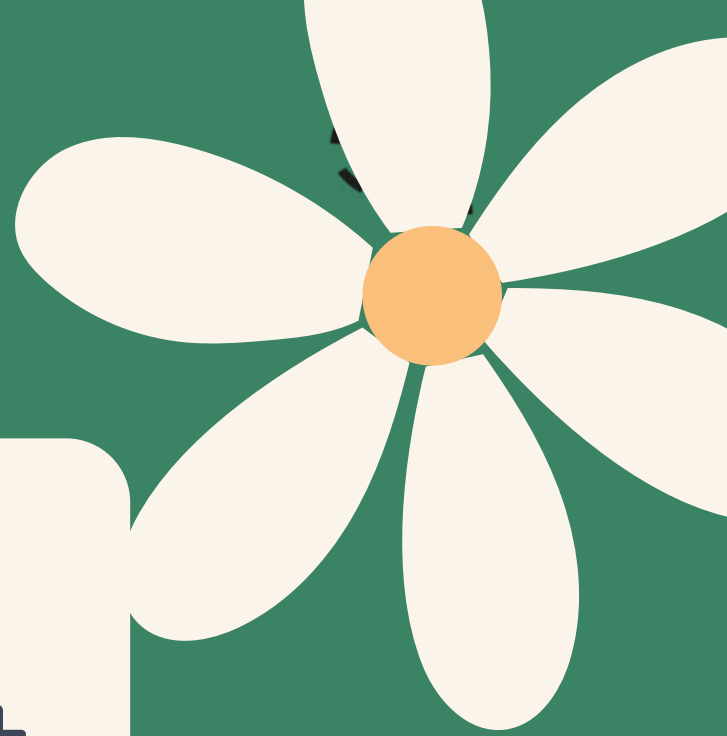

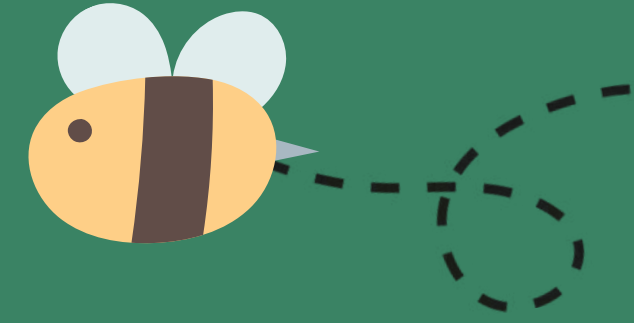

Would you rather take care of a baby bunny for a week or have a pet duckling follow you everywhere?

Would you rather spend a day volunteering at an animal shelter or helping to clean up a local park?

Would you rather always have to wear sunglasses in spring or always wear a light jacket, even on warm days?

Would you rather have to plant 50 flowers in your garden or wash 10 muddy dogs after they played in the rain?

Would you rather have to eat asparagus with every meal in spring or never eat fresh spring vegetables?

Would you rather spend a whole day feeding baby goats or collecting fresh honey from a beehive?

Would you rather have to run barefoot through wet grass every morning or wear wet socks for an hour every afternoon?

Thank you!

Have a great day!
